Everything you need to know about

Assessment at IM THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO.

It is a reflective institutional and systemic process of assessing student learning.

It is a year-round cycle.

It is NOT an evaluation of teaching or programming.

The Office of Assessment & Academic Program Review (OA/APR) offers several support services (see below).

Academic Assessment

Complete the plan portion of the Plan/Report Template

Collect data

Complete the report portion of the Plan/Report Template

CARC for review

Submit to the CARC submits all Plans/Reports to the OA/APR

OA/APR shares results in an annual assessment report

Internal college, school, and branch submission deadlines vary. CARCs submit annually to the OA/APR by January 31st.

The College Assessment Review Committee (CARC) completes a Maturity Rubric/Narrative, which highlights strengths & weaknesses of the assessment processes.

General Education (GE) Assessment

As of the Fall 2019 NMHED General Education Revisions, Assessment is Essential Skill based.

The Five Essential Skills:

Communication

Critical Thinking

Information & Digital Literacy

Personal & Social Responsibility

Quantitative Reasoning

The CARC or Unit Leadership select instructors and essential skill.

Selected GE instructors align assignments with the rubrics.

Selected instructors submit completed student work to the OA/APR by 12/15 (Fall) and 5/15 (Spring).

Graduate students trained in rubric analysis rate student work using the rubrics.

GE Assessment Reports are written & shared by OA/APR (not instructors)!

OA/APR Support Services

Website with resources, examples, deadlines, & more!

Quarterly Newsletter with OA/APR updates & best practices in assessment!

Workshops on Assessment, APR, Data Visualization, & more!

Drop-in hours & meetings as requested. Come meet with us!