Describe your organization
Los Alamos History Museum presents the stories of Los Alamos from multiple perspectives via indoor and outdoor venues, historic buildings, artifacts, documents, photographs, audio and video recordings of personal stories, and interactive visitor experiences.

Internship title
Digital Production and Marketing

Specific days/hours (if applicable)
Flexible within Museum hours.
M-F 9-5

What will the student learn from the internship?
The student will learn how to design content related to a specific mission and audience, work collaboratively with a team, manage time, and meet deadlines.

What does your business need that a student intern can impact?
We believe that a student intern will bring valuable insight and a new perspective to our organization.

What project(s) will the intern work on?
If you enjoy the creative and technical aspects of being “behind the camera,” then this job is for you! Our Intern will produce (create and edit) still pictures, video, and audio recordings of people, objects, and places that tell the stories of the history of the Pajarito Plateau, from Ancestral Pueblo people, through the Homestead Era, Los Alamos Ranch School, Manhattan Project and Cold War.

What skills are required for this internship?
We are looking for a student who is creative, willing to try new things, and enjoys working with a partner. They should have knowledge of computer skills, ideally skills related to photography or video editing.

What final deliverables will the student produce?
The student will produce digital content for our Facebook, website, and/or YouTube sites.

How would you describe the primary purpose of this project? (Select one)
